

Learning about Key Person Replacement (KPR) insurance from Principal® is easy. This product profile outlines the key features you need to know.

How it works

A Key Person Replacement insurance policy helps protect a business from the total disability of an employee who's critical to its success. This coverage helps minimize the disruption to a business from losing a valued employee. Benefits are paid to the business and can be used as needed to help offset hiring costs, staffing needs and replacing revenue.

A key employee defined

- Critical to the livelihood of a small- to medium-size business
- Working 30+ hours a week (full-time)
- Employed for more than a year
- Does not own more than 50% of the business¹

Policy benefits

- Guaranteed premium rate to age 65
- Conditionally renewable to age 65
- Pairs well with key person life insurance
- Benefits can be paid in a lump sum or a combination of monthly and lump sum, and are generally received income tax-free

Policy discounts and built-in features

- Two discounts available:
 - 20% Multi-Life (based on sex-distinct rates)²
 - 10% Select Occupation³
- Interrupted Elimination Period
- Recurring Disability
- Waiver of Premium Benefit

Starting the conversation with clients

- Discuss with life insurance clients – Bring up this important coverage when discussing succession planning or having an annual review with clients that have purchased life insurance for key employees.
- Stand out from your competition by offering comprehensive solutions – Business owners are looking for ways to minimize risk. Help make sure they have all the proper disability solutions in place in the event of the unexpected – at a 20% Multi-Life Discount.
 - Individual Disability Income insurance and DI Retirement Security enhance an employee benefits package.
 - Disability Buy-Out (DBO) and Overhead Expense insurance help protect the business investment.

Example:

Two business owners purchase DBO insurance policies on each other and pay for a KPR policy on an employee (non-owner):

DBO + DBO + KPR = 20% discount

- ¹ If the insured is an owner, the business must be in operation for at least one year for fee-for-service businesses and three years for other business types.
- ² Available when three or more employees with a common employer purchase individual disability insurance from Principal. In Ohio, only Individual DI insurance and DI Retirement Security receive the discount or count toward the three-employee minimum. In written state of Montana the discount is applied to gender-neutral, unisex rates.
- ³ Available for select 5A occupations, such as actuaries, architects, attorneys, CPAs, engineers, judges, executives earning more than $60,000/year and more.
- ⁴ Available for lump sum benefit only. Note: If both monthly and lump sum benefits are applied for, the elimination period on the monthly benefit must be less than the elimination period on the lump sum benefit.
- ⁵ Benefits are up to maximums based on three times earned income for lump sum and three times maximum Individual Disability Income benefit available.
