

Learning about Disability Buy-Out (DBO) insurance from Principal® is easy. This product profile outlines the key features you need to know about to help clients.

How it works

Disability Buy-Out insurance helps provide the funds needed to purchase a totally disabled business owner's interest under a buy-sell agreement. With a DBO insurance policy in place, the remaining owners can continue the business without:

- Using business revenue
- Obtaining loans
- Selling shares of the business for capital

Target market

- Businesses with fewer than 10 owners
- Businesses in existence for more than three years (one year for service businesses) and valued under $10 million
- Owners:
  - Between the ages 30 to 50
  - Occupations with little or no manual duties, such as corporate executives, accountants/CPAs, attorneys, business owners, dentists and medical professionals

Policy benefits

- Guaranteed premiums (based on sex distinct rates; unisex in California and Montana)
- Conditionally renewable to age 65 or 67<sup>5</sup>
- A variety of benefit arrangements (lump sum, monthly, combination)

Taxation considerations

Your business owner clients will likely be interested in knowing a few tax details:

- The disabled owner is taxed on the gain from the sale of the business.
- A purchase by a non-disabled party from a disabled owner may trigger a capital gain if the buy-out price exceeds the seller's basis in the business. The gain may be taxed under the installment sale rule if at least one payment is received after the close of the tax year (in which the sale was made).
- The payout may be tax-deductible when it's structured as a non-compete or severance pay.
- DBO premiums are not deductible, but benefits are received income tax free.

Buy-sell agreement details

Buy-sell agreements should cover a variety of triggering events that could end a business, such as death, disability, divorce, bankruptcy and retirement. In the event of a disability, the buy-sell agreement can protect:

- Disabled business owners – by obligating those listed in the agreement to buy out the disabled owner’s interest.
- Remaining nondisabled owner(s) or a key employee – by providing them with the opportunity and funding to purchase the disabled owner’s interest. DBO insurance helps provide the necessary funding to transfer that interest.

Two common structures

Cross-purchase – Each business owner purchases and owns a DBO policy on each of the other business owners.

- Remaining owners receive an increase in cost basis when they buy out the disabled owner.
- Their additional investment in the business helps offset their profit and tax liability if they eventually sell the business for a gain.
- Policy benefits are generally not available to creditors of the business.

Entity-purchase – The business purchases and owns the DBO policies and pays the premiums. If a total disability occurs, the business purchases the disabled owner’s business interest and receives tax-free reimbursement.

- This arrangement is often preferred when multiple owners are involved.
- It is not recommended if any owners expect to sell shares of the business during their lifetimes as no one will receive an increased cost basis.

Starting the conversation with clients

- Get in the door by offering, complimentary business planning services from Principal that include:
  - Buy-sell reviews
  - Informal business valuations
- Ask to confirm the funding vehicles for the buy-sell agreements. Often they are unfunded for the threat of disability. Help align business owners on a common path by asking if an owner is disabled...
  - What would happen to your business profits?
  - Are you prepared to let a spouse, relative or outsider step into the business?
  - Would you have the means necessary to buy out his/her share or would you be forced to sell the business?
- When cost is a concern, discuss the 20% Multi-Life Discount<sup>4</sup>. It’s a great way to save money, while getting the protection needed.

Example: Two owners of a business purchase DBO policies and pay premium on a Disability Income (DI) policy for an employee (who is not an owner).
DBO + DBO + DI = 20% discount
- Have a company with a key employee targeted to buy the business? Talk about the One-Way Buy-Out. It gives the key employee an opportunity to fund a single owner buy-sell agreement with DBO insurance. It’s available in approved states for DBO insurance policies (HH794).
