

Individual disability insurance

Protect your business — what you've worked so hard to build

Your business is your livelihood. That's why it's important to protect it from an unexpected illness or injury. Disability insurance can help.

We can't predict what our health will be.

In the event of a serious illness or injury, disability insurance provides payments to help protect your:

Personal income — Helps you continue to live your best life.

Business — Helps you keep the doors open while you recover or transition the business to someone else.

Employees' incomes — Shows them you care when times are good ... and when life gets tough.

Don't think it could happen to you?

A disability is more than just an accident. It can happen to anyone, anywhere, anytime.¹

How affordable is this coverage?

Individual disability insurance (IDI) is flexible and can be designed to work with your budget and needs.

To protect your income, it typically costs just 1-3% of what you earn.

That means IDI is just as affordable as:

-  A daily cup of premium coffee
-  A monthly date night
-  Buying lunch every day
-  A monthly smartphone bill

What kind of service can you expect?

“It’s been automatic. The claims people have been great — very polite and understanding. I’ve dealt with many insurance companies, but the people at Principal have been especially nice.”
