EXPERIENCE & CREDENTIALS:

As a financial professional with the Minnesota Business Center of Principal®, Eric Kautzman works with individuals and small businesses to create strategies and build plans to help clients achieve financial success. He helps individuals manage their risks, so their families build investment and distribution plans that meet their retirement needs.

Before joining Principal, Eric Kautzman was a leader in higher-education philanthropy for over 20 years. In various roles he managed the endowment, assisted individuals and businesses in reaching their philanthropic goals and supported important projects that benefitted students and programs at the University of Minnesota and St. Cloud State University.

Eric's experience includes working with many of Minnesota's leading philanthropists and companies, as well as small businesses. He has worked with all types of gifting vehicles including Charitable Remainder Trusts, annuities, real property and insurance. His background is excellent for helping individuals and businesses to implement strategies to meet their financial needs, determining how best to support their community.

Eric's community involvement has included fundraising for his church, volunteering, mentoring students at his alma mater, the University of Minnesota and coaching youth baseball.

INTERESTS:

Eric and his wife Deb, have three children and live in Champlin, MN. Eric enjoys attending his girl's high school soccer games and his son's rock-climbing competitions. Additionally, Eric enjoys running, mountain biking, camping and spending time with Deb.
