Chris joined Principal® in 2015 with more than 14 years of experience in the financial services and mortgage industries. Chris worked with a financial services firm outside of Baltimore, MD for 4 years while attending college. Chris spent 10 years as a mortgage originator, with the last 5.5 years as a brokerage owner. He and his wife relocated to Northern, CA in early 2014 where he began his second career as a Financial Advisor.

Chris has developed an understanding of what it means to have a responsibility to his customers. His goal has always been to help as many people as possible. He looks forward to helping individuals, families and businesses with their financial goals.
