Garry is a hardworking, dedicated, driven person who excels at knowing his clients and his craft. The progression through his career path is evidence of this. In the automotive industry he started in sales and was continuously promoted, from Sales Mgr to Finance Mgr and ultimately Finance Director of a very large successful operation. He moved into the Mortgage industry as an Account Executive earning honors by having the highest volume year after year for Northern California. After seeing the effects of the economy on his clients, his dedication and passion for helping others brought him to the financial services industry in 2007, where he feels he can make the most significant impact and a real difference in their lives.
